SPIRITUAL LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

BYNE MEMORIAL BAPTIST CHURCH

7:00 P.M., FRIDAY; 9:00 A.M. SATURDAY

Special guest will be Henry and Richard Blackaby

There will also be a special luncheon for pastors and staff with Henry Blackaby on Friday, October 7, noon at FBC Albany. Reservations required for the luncheon. Please make your reservations by Tuesday,

Oct. 4, 2005, by calling the Mallary Office at 435-6171.

Tom Hocutt,
Director of Missions

God is moving in our midst! I am hearing good things from our churches as they continue to fulfill the Great Commission. It is exciting to see many of our churches working together to advance God's Kingdom. Isn't that what the association should be about—cooperating together to accomplish more for Him?

Please make your plans to attend the ACTS 1:8 Training at First Acree from 6:30-9:30 pm on Thursday, September 1. You will be challenged to lead your church to be a global mission agent as well as be challenged personally to be an ACTS 1:8 Christian. Mike Gravette and John Tarrer from the GBC will be leading us.

Tuesday, September 20, at 7 pm is the suggested time to Prayer Walk our schools. This is 12 hours before our students gather for the See You at the Pole prayer time at their schools. Will you make prayer for our schools a priority beginning by joining us in the time of prayer walking the schools? Please call the office on Wednesday to let us know how many participated in the prayer walk and which schools you prayer walked. Let's prayer walk every school and have over 500 participating!

Make your plans now to attend the 122nd Annual Meeting of the Mallary Baptist Association at Gillionville Baptist Church beginning at 3 pm with the business session. Registration will begin at 2:30 pm. At the 5 and 7 pm sessions, Henry Blackaby will be speaking on prayer. The meal will be at 6 pm. Due to the fact that we will have extra people attending this year, it is most important that you call Gillionville (435-9738) to let them know how many from your church will be present for the meal (cost $4). Don't forget to elect your messengers, but also remember that everyone is encouraged to attend.

The Spiritual Leadership Conference will be October 7-8 (Friday—7 pm and Saturday—9 am & 1 pm) at Byne. This conference will be led by Henry and Richard (Henry's son) Blackaby. Make your plans to be present. You will not want to miss this great opportunity to hear men who are being used mightily by God all over the world. Lunch will be on your own.

Also on Friday at noon encourage your pastor and staff to attend the luncheon with Henry Blackaby at First Baptist Albany. The cost is $5 per person and reservations are required by calling the Mallary office at 435-6171.

I ran across the following quote from Rick Warren, pastor of Saddleback Community Church in California speaking about church ministry in the 21st century: "I believe the most overlooked requirement in the church is to have spiritually mature members—members who unselfishly limit their own preferences of what they think a church should look like in order to reach lost people for Christ." (from Ministry Tool Box, Issue #214). I wonder if we agree with him. Do we church members limit our preferences about church to reach the lost? Maybe we agree mentally, but do our actions show that we believe this? Just food for thought!

On a personal note thank you for your prayers for complete recovery from my surgery. I have been released by the doctor and my arm is stronger than before. Also it looks like I will be traveling to China with my son and wife and Sydney in November. We should be getting a picture of Emily in less than a month.
